LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. T. B. Grenaker spent the week end in Manning.

Mr. Amos Moore came home from the B. M. I. to spend the week-end.

Mrs. Walter S. Allen of Fruit Hill was among the visitors in Edgefield Friday.

Miss Fannie Wright Hill of Augusta spent the week-end with Miss Sadie Mims.

Mr. C. R. Dobson of Greensboro, spent yesterday with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson.

Mr. N. D. Robertson of Augusta is spending several days in Edgefield and vicinity with relatives.

Miss Sallie Mae Nicholson spent the week-end in Greenwood with her brother, Mr. W. H. Nicholson.

Mr. Israel Mukashy announces a very great reduction in prices of the celebrated Walk-Over shoes in his advertisement this week. Read what he says.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor occupies the old Methodist parsonage near the church, which has been modernly equipped with water and thoroughly renovated.

Prof. J. F. Entzminger of Greenwood, sales agent for the Tuxbury Lumber Company of Charleston, has engaged Dr. A. H. Corley to represent this county as local agent in Edgefield.

Mrs. S. McG. Simkins spent the past week in Columbia visiting, incidentally her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Graydon, but particularly her youngest little granddaughter who is named for her.

There is an old saying that "an apple a day will keep the doctor away," but as long as they sell, we mean the choice ones, for five cents each, most of us will have to resort to other means of keeping the doctor away.

Mr. Turner announces in the advertisement of the Corner Store this week the names of the lucky persons who drew the prizes Tuesday. He also expresses appreciation for the splendid success of his recent special sale.

Mr. Sloan Watson had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire several nights ago. About five hundred bushels of corn and a large quantity of fodder were burned. The building was practically new. There was no insurance.

The Edgefield friends of Miss Elise Carwile were deeply pained to learn of her death at her home in Ridge Spring. Not only has she visited relatives in Edgefield, but during the time she taught in Edgefield she made many friends here.

Mrs. J. D. Holstein left Sunday afternoon for Baltimore to be with Mr. Holstein who is being treated in a private sanitarium for nervous prostration. Mr. Holstein's friends deeply regret that he has improved but little since going to Baltimore several weeks ago.

The friends of Miss Lottie Deal were surprised to learn by telegram Monday that she and Mr. Walter Turner of Atlanta were married in Atlanta Sunday. The Advertiser joins her Edgefield friends in extending cordial good wishes. Mr. Turner is engaged in the drug business in Atlanta.

Mr. Abrom Daitch tells our readers this week of his large shoe stock which was bought direct from the leading manufacturers in the country. Mr. Daitch can fit every member of the family with shoes and his prices are in keeping with the stringency of the times. See him before making your shoe purchases.

Great is the pity that even a single chattel mortgage will have to be foreclosed in Edgefield county this fall. It always means a heavy loss to the debtor and comparatively little gain to the creditor. Yet there are some cases where foreclosures are unavoidable and we trust that only in such cases will property of this class be sacrificed.

If you need a Battery see us, we now have the GENUINE FORD BATTERY for $25.00.

Annex Completed.

The Sunday school rooms of the Methodist church, immediately adjoining the church, have been completed and will be used for the first time next Sunday. The work of making this addition to the church plant has been handled with dispatch and rushed to completion.

Shot Her Husband.

Early Thursday morning Annie Quiller, who resided on the farm of Dr. J. T. Reese, shot her husband, John Henry Quiller, with a pistol. The ball entered near the heart and caused almost instant death. Sheriff Swearingen went down and brought the woman to jail Thursday, finding her at the home of a relative in Aiken county. The woman states that they were playing with the pistol and that the shooting was accidental.

Hope for His Return.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor will leave next week to attend the annual session of the Upper South Carolina Conference of the Methodist church, and it is the earnest desire of the people of Edgefield, irrespective of church affiliation, that he be returned to this field. His ministry in Edgefield has been very successful and a change at this time would be unfortunate.

Feathered Money Crop.

There are money crops besides cotton—in fact, it is no longer a money crop—which people will have to turn to. The most fortunate man of which we have heard recently, in the matter of having something else to fall back on in the failure of a cotton crop, is Mr. M. W. Hudgens who has a drove of 55 large, fine turkeys. They will be like so many gold dollars about the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

Now in Milledgeville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Merrill are in Milledgeville, Ga., where Mr. Merrill is engaged in conducting a sale. They made many friends while in Edgefield and Mr. Merrill was greatly pleased with his business in Edgefield. He stated too, to The Advertiser's representative that he has never dealt with more agreeable people than the men for whom he conducted sales in Edgefield. He expressed himself as being very grateful to these men for their splendid patronage.

Edgefield Community Fair to be Held Friday, November 4th, in Opera House.

General admission to the Community Fair will be ten cents. Those wanting dinner pay fifty cents at the door which pays for admission and dinner. We will be glad to have exhibits from all over the county. Those having any article they wish to bring to the fair to exhibit and then sell we will be glad to handle it for them. Those having articles to list for prizes must bring them in the day before.

The following is the menu:

Chicken salad, potato salad, ham, bread, pickle, coffee.

Sunday Schools in the Country

The Sunday school at the rural school house or church, if properly conducted so that the children are interested, makes a strong impression upon those who attend and has much to do in forming character for moral, Christian manhood and womanhood. Every community needs an interesting Sunday school conducted and taught by competent teachers. There is inspiration in good singing, earnest Scripture reading and recitations of the Bible lesson.

Here is where teachers of the public schools may exercise leadership and render effective service to the community. Many of them understand music and can lead in singing. Most of them may teach classes in the Sunday school and their services in religious work at the church go a long way in inspiring confidence for leadership.—Form and Ranch.

Bury Miss Carwile.

Ridge Spring, S. C., Oct. 24.—The funeral of Miss Elise Carwile who died late Saturday afternoon was conducted at the Episcopal church this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Peatross of Edgefield officiated. Interment was in the family plot at the Ridge Cemetery. Miss Carwile was a woman of fine character and high ideals. She was always ready to do what she could for her church and Sunday school. She was a faithful member of the Episcopal church. Besides her mother, Mrs. Chice Carwile, she is survived by four brothers, Frank, of Ridge Spring; Richard, of Columbia; Edwin, of Charleston and Stanmore of Chio.

Death of Mr. J. Roper Moss.

Trenton, Oct. 21.—The county of Edgefield, as well as Trenton, the home town of J. Roper Moss, was shocked and grieved at his sudden death on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Moss had been playing checkers. He complained of feeling badly and went to the home of his nephew, J. D. Mathis, near his store, and sent for his physician. In three hours he was dead from heart failure. Mrs. Moss left him in what she supposed perfect health to spend the day in Augusta and reached him just before the end. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Dollie Walker of North Augusta; a son, Roper Moss, Jr., and a daughter, Felicia; two sisters, Mrs. J. D. Mathis, Sr., and Mrs. Wallace W. Wise; a brother, W. H. Moss. The interment was at Ebenezer cemetery Thursday, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Brooke of Johnston, assisted by Rev. Mr. Peatross of Edgefield. The grave was massed with flowers showing the love his friends had for him.

The friends of Mr. Moss in Edgefield were deeply shocked by the announcement of his death. Edgefield shares with Trenton the grief and the loss which has come through his death. Mr. Moss was a man who made friends of all with whom he came in contact and he was as genuinely beloved by friends here as he was in his home community. His death removes from Trenton one of its foremost citizens. He not only succeeded in managing well his private interests but was keenly alert in promoting the community's welfare. Mr. Moss was generous and public spirited, always bearing his share of whatever promoted the best interests of the town of Trenton. His loss will be very keenly felt. The Advertiser extends sincere sympathy to Mrs. Moss and to the son and daughter which are left in the grief-stricken home.

Edgefield School News.

The eleventh grade of the High School has organized and elected officers as follows: Eleanor Mims, president; Kate Mims, vice president; Robert Ouzts, secretary and treasurer.

The basket ball team, selected to represent Edgefield in the inter-Hi contests, is composed of the following:

Corrie Cheatham and Kate Mims, forwards; Alice Prescott and Felicia Mims, centers; Willie Mae McCarthy and Julia Strom, guards; Eddie Sue McClendon, Mary Lyon and Sarah Reeves, subs. Maria Hume, Lucy Sheppard, Emily Ouzts, Ruth Ouzts and Elizabeth Johnson have shown up well in the preliminary games and will, in all probability, get a chance to play in the inter-Hi games. The girls' team is in charge of Miss Ruth Tompkins, who is well qualified to coach and whose interest in the team is appreciated by the entire student body as well as the teachers. Miss Kate Mims has been elected manager of the team.

The State has been divided into two parts, and Edgefield has been placed in the Southern division, by the Executive Committee of the State Hi League. Supt. S. W. Carwile, of McColl, has supervision over the Girls' Basket Ball teams. Each school will be allowed to arrange its own schedule and all games played between November 1st and January 1st will count in the final reckoning for the State Championship. Mr. Carwile will arrange a schedule after January 1st to select the representatives for the different sections of the state, in preparation for the final contest in Columbia.

Frances Willard Day will be observed by the Edgefield schools on Friday, October 28th. Public exercises will be held in the auditorium at 1:15 p. m. Visitors welcome.

Cotton Ginning Far Advanced

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cotton of this year's growth ginned prior to October 18 amounted to 5,477,397 bales, exclusive of linters, compared with 5,754,582 bales last year and 4,929,104 bales in 1919 to that date, the census bureau announced today.

Round bales included numbered 99,371, compared with 140,099, last year; American-Egyptian included numbered 7,498 bales compared with 14,312 last year and sea island included numbered 1,204 bales compared with 334 last year.

The ginning report included a paragraph stating:

"The department of agriculture on October 3, 1921, estimated that the condition of the cotton crop on September 25 was 42.2 per cent of a normal, the lowest condition ever reported, which forecasts a total of production of about 6,537,000 bales of 500 pounds gross. Reports indicate that a large proportion of the crop has been ginned."

The heaviest ginning on record, prior to this year, was that of 1916 when 7,303,183 bales, or 64.3 per cent of the crop, were ginned prior to October 19. The next largest ginning to that date was in 1918 when 6,811,351 bales or 57.2 per cent of the crop were ginned.

Ginnings by states follow: Alabama, 426,152; Arizona, 8,567; Arkansas, 449,484; California, 4,012; Florida, 8,127; Georgia, 637,129; Louisiana, 195,115; Mississippi, 512,007; Missouri, 40,333; North Carolina, 444,964; Oklahoma, 347,146; South Carolina, 494,261; Tennessee, 158,660; Texas, 1,740,766; Virginia, 7,505; all other states, 3,079.

Concerning the cotton situation, Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture, said today:

"The cotton ginned to October 18, as shown by the census report, namely, 5,447,397 bales, running weight, is 83.8 per cent of the October 3 forecast of total production by the department of agriculture which was 6,537,000 bales of 500 pounds weight. "So far as our records go, the highest percentage of cotton ginned to October 18 was 46.3 per cent in the year 1916, when the crop was a small one. The smallest percentage ginned up to October 18 was 37.7 per cent in 1903.

"Our people in the department, who are qualified to judge of such matters, say that there can be no reasonable doubt that this year's cotton crop is more large ginned to date than ever before. In the first place, the crop is a very small one and under such conditions the percentage ginned to date would naturally be large. In the second place, the season has been unusually forward and reports from practically all sections of the cotton belt indicate that picking has been practically completed. In Texas both picking and ginning is much farther advanced than usual and about completed except in the northwest corner of the state. In North Carolina rapid progress in picking has been made. In Alabama picking is finished in most Southern and central sections, and is elsewhere well advanced, with ginning progressing rapidly. In Mississippi picking and ginning have made rapid progress. In Alabama the cotton is all picked in some localities and throughout in other localities. In Oklahoma picking is reported as having progressed rapidly."
